

Media Advisory: The Manifest Foundation and Nancy Lieberman Foundation Build DreamCourt for At-Risk Youth in Austin

10/20/2011

AUSTIN, TX—Basketball Hall of Famer Nancy Lieberman dreamed of a safe environment for at-risk youth to learn the challenges and rewards of teamwork, good sportsmanship and competition. When she teamed up with the Manifest Foundation, DreamCourts were born. Inspired by the vision and unparalleled commitment to improve the quality of life for children and teens in underprivileged communities, the Manifest Foundation initiated a remarkable collaboration with the Nancy Lieberman Foundation and Connor Sport Court International to build DreamCourts in the United States, and eventually around the globe.

On Oct. 21, 2011, the Manifest Foundation and its partners will present the second U.S. DreamCourt to the Boys & Girls Club of South Austin. Co-created with a generous grant from the United States Tennis Association (USTA) to promote its 10 and Under Tennis initiative, the newest DreamCourt is customized for basketball and tennis play, and is the first of its kind in the nation.

What:

In partnership with the Nancy Lieberman Foundation, Connor Sport Court International and a grant from the USTA, the Manifest Foundation and its family of donors will provide the Boys and Girls Club of South Austin, serving more than 700 children daily, with the second-ever U.S. DreamCourt.

When:

Oct. 21, 2011
4:30–6:30 p.m.

Where:

The Boys & Girls South Club
303 West Johanna
Austin, TX 78704

Who:

Nancy Lieberman, Nancy Lieberman Foundation Founder
Spryte Lorianio, Manifest Foundation Executive Director
Mark Strama, Texas House of Representatives Member
Brian Beaulieu, Boys & Girls Club of the Austin Area Director of Operations
Joe Ure, Connor Sport Court International Vice President of Distribution
Mike Azcue, WorldVentures CEO
Eddie Head, WorldVentures CSO
Clay Johnson and Traci Williams, WorldVentures Independent Representatives and Field Project Coordinators
Austin Toro's Mascot

Contact Information:

Spryte Lorianio
541-291-0707
slorianio@manifestfoundation.org